A HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON!

Callers' Column

By JOE BAILEY EDWARDS
Mount Pleasant, Texas

While attending festivals and jamborees during the fall square dance season I have heard numerous complaints about dancing too fast. These complaints have come from dancers, callers, and band members—each group blaming one or both of the other groups, so I have come to the conclusion that all are guilty to some degree. If the pace is too slow there is similar complaint, and rightly so, for then the dance becomes boring, and it is hard to keep the rhythm. You will agree, I believe, that there is a clear difference between lively dancing which is enjoyable and too fast a pace which is tiresome to all. A band should not be expected to tire its members with an evening of too fast playing; a caller cannot keep up a full evening of too fast calling if he wishes to take care of his throat and voice; and the dancers will become exhausted long before an evening is over if the pace is too fast. After all, square dancing is for pleasure and is not intended to be a marathon.

If any one or two of the three groups—dancers, callers, or band —sets a pace which is too fast, then the dance becomes a contest rather than the cooperative and pleasant diversion it is meant to be, I have found the various square dance bands very agreeable and ready to play at the speed desired by the caller, although I have been told of some which play too fast, regardless of what the caller wishes. Some callers have complained that the dancers get ahead of them, so they speed up, trying to stay properly ahead of the dancers. In a singing call there is not much chance to keep the dancers back if they insist on getting ahead of the caller. However, if a caller has trained his dancers to listen to him instead of memorizing the figures and fillers, in a patter call he can change the fillers or figures if the dancers tend to anticipate the call. I am sorry to say that I have heard some callers who called so fast they had the band and the dancers in a frenzy. As a result there was a mad scramble and an exhausted group of people who soon became disgusted with square dancing.

JOE BAILEY EDWARDS

I would like to suggest that all of us work together to bring square dancing back to its proper pace. Let's make it the fine, enjoyable and pleasant way to spend an evening with our friends in our clubs, or with new friends at a festival, by cooperating—dancers, callers, and bands together—in making our square dancing lively without being too fast and smooth without being too slow. When it ceases to be enjoyable and relaxing, square dancing itself will cease.

LITTLE THINGS

THAT ADD UP

It's Easy, Folks!

Whose wrist to take in an Allemande or Texas Star?

Why, it's easy, folks, simply take the wrist of the person in front of you!

As you turn left to make a right hand star, there is a dancer in front of you (on your left) whose arm and wrist you can easily see and grasp. If you turn right for a left hand star the one on your right is then in front of you and the wrist is easily seen as grasped.

Follow this simple rule and you will not have to turn your head to look back and start groping for the wrist of someone who is behind you.

It makes for smoother, more comfortable dancing.

Let's Go All the Way!

The square dance movement is large—larger than any one individual or group of individuals; yet, it is individual effort, seemingly so small, but of great importance, that keeps square dancing in the hearts of the American people.

It is not enough just to pay for a dance or pay club dues. For the hours and hours of fine entertainment you enjoy, you owe something personal, something real. No one can do this for you, nor can you hire it done. It is completely a matter of personal effort.

Successful businessmen realize that they owe more to a community than just paying taxes, or keeping within the law. They know they must put something personal, a part of themselves into the society in which has made them successful, in order for this same society to endure.

So, too, should it be with all square dancers. Go all the way; be an active club member or square dancer. Urge others to join your club. Be constantly on the alert to seek new dancers. This is a personal debt that only you can pay.

Never hesitate to do your part bit to help when called upon or it is indicated. Don't think that someone else could do the job better—just dive right in and do your best. Even a small effort pays big dividends to our square dance movement.

The moral tone of our community will be raised by all of us being active square dancers. Your dancing pleasure, also will be much the greater.

★ Club News—

BAR-NOTHING
(Dallas)

The first and third Friday nights at the J-L are continuing to be wonderful nights for square dancing, like you sometimes hear about, with Joe Lewis calling, the Rhythm Outlaws furnishing the music, and enthusiastic Bar-Nothing members and guests dancing in their usual good form. Since our last report to Balance and Swing, several new couples have been added to our roster as members, who, after coming as guests to our club indicated they found within our ranks the merits they desired in a square dance group — the caller, (Joe Lewis), the band (Rhythm Outlaws) and a spirit of friendliness and hospitality among the members and guests, which made us proud all over again. With the first dance for this month, December 3rd, so enthusiastically received, we are looking forward to our Pre-Christmas dance, December 17th — same place, same time, same caller, same band, and with the same members, and as many of our guests as can attend, present. Visitors are always welcome—remember we dance at the J-L every first and third Friday nights.

All housing requests should be sent to Paul GraVette, 2612 West Park, Oklahoma City, and not to hotels and motels. The housing committee has made a complete survey of all Oklahoma City housing and is issuing it according to a set plan—first reservations getting best accommodations with latecomers receiving the secondary housing. The $1.00 per person per day advanced registration fee should be sent with housing requests. Convention officials feel this will help make best use of available accommodations. Convention time registration will be $1.25.

Several groups are planning special trains or cars, some with the idea of using them while in Oklahoma City. Railroad stations in Oklahoma City are convenient for such use. Those interested should contact railroad officials in their areas.

Already several camp groups have reserved entire motels. Special luncheons and other reunion get-togethers also are being outlined by groups throughout the United States. Convention officials will be glad to help groups with these special arrangements.

All correspondences on all phases of the Convention as well as requests for after-party tickets should be sent to 2936 Bella Vista, Midwest City, Oklahoma.

THE COWBOY'S CHRISTMAS BALL

"The Cowboys' Christmas Ball" has an old history dating as far back as 1880's and was a great social event. This annual affair could very justly be called one of our first festivals as friends and neighbors came for miles around to attend this special event.

This was before the days of the public address system as you will note. The caller was "Windy Billy" (William Wilkinson), and as you read on you will see the planing that went into this dance as even the music had to be imported.

The author Larry Chittenden was a New Yorker out West on business but he truly picked up the spirit of the square dance in his ballad. It was back in Dec. 7, 1891 that the Dallas Morning News first published this ballad.

By Larry Chittenden

Way out in Western Texas, where the Clear Fork's water flows,
Where the cattle are a-browsin', and the Spanish
ponies grow;
Where the northers come a-whistlin', from beyond
the neutral strip;
And the prairie dogs are sneezin', as if they had
The Grip;
Where the cayotes come a-howlin' 'round the ranches
after dark,
And the mocking-birds 'are singin' to the lovely
medder lark;
Where the 'possum and the badger, and rattlesnakes
abound,
And the monstrous stars are winkin' o'er a wilderness profound;
Where lonesome, tawny prairies melt into airy
streams,
While the Double Mountains slumber, in heavenly kinds of dreams;
Where the antelope is gazin' and the lonely plovers
call—
It was there that I attended The Cowboys Christmas
Ball.
The town was Anson City, old Jones' county seat,
Where they raise Polled Angus cattle, and waving
whiskered wheat;
Where the air is soft and bammmy, an' dry an' full
of health,
And the prairies is explodin' with agricultural wealth,
Where they print the Texas Western, that Hec
McCann supplies,
With news and yarns and stories, uv most amazin'
size;
Where Frank Smith pulls the badger on knowin' tenderfoot.
And Democracy's triumphant, and mighty hard to beat;
Where lives that good old hunter, John Milsap from Lamar,
Who used to be the Sheriff back East, in Paris, Sah.
'Twas there, I say, at Anson, with the lively Wider Wall,
That I went to that reception, The Cowboys' Christmas Ball.
The boys had left the ranches and come to town in piles;
The ladies—kinder scatterin', had gathered in for miles
And yet the place was crowded, as I remember well,
'Twas got for the occasion, at The Morning Star Hotel.

The music was fiddle an' a lively tamborine,
And a viol come imported, by the stage from Abilene
The room was togged out gorgeous—with mistletoe and shawls,
And candles flickered frescoes, around the airy walls.
And wimmin folks looked lovely—the boys looked kinder treed,
Till their leader commenced yellin': "Woah! fellers,
let's stampede."
And the music singin', an' a-wailing' through the hall,
As a kind of introduction to The Cowboys' Christmas
Ball.
The leader was a feller that came from Swenson's Ranch,
They called him Windy Billy, from little Deadman's Branch.
His rig was kinder keerless, big spurs and high-
heeled boots;
He had the reputation that comes when fellers shoots
His voice was like a bugle upon the mountain's heights;
His feet were animated an' a mighty movin' sight,
When he commenced to holler, "Neow fellers, stake
yer pen!
Lock horns ter all them heifers, an' russel 'em like men.
Saloot yer lovely critter; neaw swing an' let 'em go,
Climb the grapevine 'round 'em—all hands do-ce-do!
You Mavericks, jine the round-up—jest skip her waterfall."
Huh! Hit was gittin' happy, The Cowboys' Christmas
Ball!
The boys were tolerable skittish, the ladies powerful neat,
That old bass viol's music just got there with both feet!
That wailin', frisky fiddle, I never shall forget;
And Windy kept a-singin'—I think I hear him yet—
"O Yes, chase your squirrels, an' cut 'em to one side,
Spur Treadwell to the center, with Cross P. Charley's bride,
Doc Hollis down the middle, and twice the ladies chain
Varn Andrews pen the fillies in big T-Diamonds train
All pull yer freight together, neow, swallow fork
an' change,
Big Boston lead the trail herd, through Little Pitchfork's range.
Purr round yer gentle pussies, neow rope 'em!
Balance all!"
Huh! Hit was gettin' active—The Cowboys' Christmas Ball.

FOR YOUR SQUARE DANCE ENJOYMENT

The Little Shoemaker

Tune: Same

Now you bow swing them 'round
Men star left across the town
A right hand swing, star left again
Box the gnat, ladies fair
Star by the left just leave him there
Go across and swing, star left again
(star to opposite and swing and star back to original partner)

Take your mate with you, eight pairs of dancing shoes
(Ladies pick up partner in a star promenade)

You can hear the beat of dancing feet

Roll the ladies out and swing them once around (Roll ladies out as in "Sailing Down The Old Green River")

Right and left your feet are dancing, dancing
Right hand 'round then on your way
Shoes you set my feet a dancing, dancing
Dancing all my cares away
Balance out, half sashay, swing the girl that comes your way

(Corner lady is your original partner)

Go left of town, for a left hand 'round

Right and left and turn back two

That's the girl with the dancing shoes

A do-si-do (do-paso) and on you go

That's your partner left and your corner right hand 'round

Now swing your sweet, with the dancing feet

Chain four ladies all, three quarters 'round the hall

REPEAT B

Down On the Farm

(Music: "Reuben, Reuben")

(Original singing call by Lew Torrance, Ft. Arthur, Texas)

(Opener, trim and closer)

Reuben, Reuben, dosey round your corner

Swing with your sweet little girl:

Left hand round your corner,

A grand, right, left, till you meet her and then,

You swing her again,

Circle to the left now, half-way around,

Now bow to her and swing her sweet,

You dosey round your corner, once around—

Then swing your lady, boys, you swing 'er round,

Promenade your lady, down to the farm,

After she's seen Paree-ee!

(Figure)

Four men star now, the opposite left,

Star back home a left hand swing,

Ladies make a star now, and round you go,

You'll meet him and then,

Swing him again,

Circle to the left now, circle around,

An eight-hand, right hand star so neat,

Now make a left hand star and don't be slow,

Gents turn back—and round the ring you go,

Swing her when you meet her, and promenade home,

Now that she's been Paree-eeeee!

Back right out to lines of four

(1st and 3rd pass through and walk around the sides couples back to home. Meet new partner, No. 1 man with No. 3 lady, No. 3 man with No. 1 lady, box the gnat. Release hands and back up to lines of four with sides couples. Two ladies and two men are standing together in each line of four.)

Forward eight and back with you
Star by the right with the opposite two

(Two lines of four go forward and back, then the two men in each line star by the right with the two ladies across from them. Turn the two four hand star once around.)

Gents promenade outside the town

(Four ladies move into left hand star in center of set while the gents continue in a clockwise promenade around the outside.)

If you had a new gal, just let 'er go
Turn mother with the right—a full turn, Joe

(Gents will pass original partner immediately after start of promenade. Pass her by and turn her with a right hand around the next time you meet. Author's note: No problem here. The first time you meet the caller is yapping it up about "If you had a new gal, etc.)

Put her in behind—a right hand star
Walk along now, but not too far

(Girls are behind their partners in a eight, right hand star.)

This dance is open to the public and continues the year 'round. The building is Air-Conditioned for Summer dancing. The Second Tuesday nite Intermediate dance for Y members has had a boost in attendance since the completing of the last Square Dance Class, which was being held on Monday Nites.

New Square Dance Lessons will begin Monday Nite, January 10, and will continue for eight Monday Nites. These lessons are open to the Public.

Troy Cox does the teaching and calling for the Y and the "Red Tops" furnish the music.

TRI-COUNTY SQUARES
(Brooklyn, Wisconsin)

Tri-County Squares, Brooklyn,

Wisconsin, held their 2nd Annual "Butch Nelson Dance" on October 30.

The decoration followed the Halloween theme with an abundance of jack-o-lanterns around the hall with mobiles swinging along with a capacity crowd of enthusiastic dancers from Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. The center mobile carried a three foot caricature of "Butch" Nelson and the stage was decorated with corn shocks, jack-o-lanterns and saddles.

The dancers enjoyed a bang-up time with the excellent calling and bubbling personality of "Butch" Nelson, El Paso, Texas and music by Leo and Roger of Rockford, Illinois. Square Dancers left reluctantly and tired, but happy, looking forward to the next "Butch Nelson Dance".

"Butch" is now making several appearances throughout the Midwest, where his avid followers are ever increasing in numbers.

PARK DEPARTMENT DANCE

A ROUND WITH ROUNDS

By ROGER KNAPP

This new column has been added to Balance and Swing in an effort to help the Round dance and Square teacher and caller to choose the most enjoyable dance for them from the multitude of dances created each month. I personally believe the large number of new dances is a good sign of increasing interest in rounds and among the many, the really good ones will stand out and give dancing pleasure to us all. An attempt will be made to print dances suitable for the square dancer, some for the round dancer and for the so-called experts, the more complicated dances and possibly an occasional quadrille, which are really rounds in square formation. The first will be a fun dance for the square dancers and round dancers also. All have fun doing it everywhere we have seen it used. So here are the steps—have fun.

Jolly is the Miller with Turkey in the Straw

Position: A circle of couples facing Counter-clockwise around the hall

MUSIC: Jolly Is The Miller—Old Timer 8089

The music starts right out with a call for a promenade and this promenade should be in the normal promenade position using a two-step. When the call says for the gent's to turn back but the ladies keep going, they do just that so that the gent's are now moving Clockwise and the ladies still counterclockwise. When the call says "Grab boys Grab" the boys grab a girl and start the sequence below. If there are extra girls or boys they should step into the center of the ring where they can get partners or if there are more boys than girls they wait until the sequence is finished and then join the promenade in their proper lines.

The Call:

Jolly is the miller boy that lives by the mill

The mill goes around with a right good will

One hand in the hopper and the other in the sack

*The girls keep going but the boys turn back

Oh the boys turn back all around that ring

And they pass right by each sweet young thing

Now keep on going and you'll sure be glad

When I tell you fellers to Grab, boys, Grab.

*(Alternate)

The boys keep going but the girls turn back

The girls turn back Oh me Oh My Pass right by each handsome guy

Keep on going and you'll sure be glad

When I tell you girlies, to Grab, girls, Grab.

SEQUENCE OF TURKEY IN THE STRAW*

1-4 Two step forward; and two-step close—; two step turn; and two step open;
In semi-open position two-step twice forward in line of direction then close dance and make one Clockwise rotation in 2 two-steps.

5-8 Two step forward; and two step close; two step turn; and now you drag;
Repeat measure 1-4 above ending with gent's back to center facing partner holding both hands.

9-12 D-r-a-g; stomp stomp stomp; d-r-a-g; stomp, stomp, stomp;
Gent steps to his Left and drags his Right foot slowly up to the left, then stomps three times in place starting with his Left. Repeats this to his Right.

13-16 Back right up and back right up; now take your little honey and we'll all promenade.
Still facing partners the gent backs up two two-steps toward the center of the hall while the lady backs up 2 two-steps toward the wall, then go together again in two two-steps to start the promenade forward in promenade position.

At the end of the recording go forward and bow to partner, then on the "shave and a hair cut" ending, call: TWIRL YOUR PARTNER and the lady is twirled Left face under his L and her R hands to stamp feet on floor twice at the "Six bits" ending.

St. Louis Dancer Honored

By John Sabin

Millie Wirtel, popular St. Louis caller, was honored recently for her work in square dancing by being chosen "Good Neighbor of the Week" over a St. Louis radio station. She was selected for the award on the basis of her work as volunteer chairman for four years of a square dancing project at a State mental hospital. The program which has the full support of the Greater St. Louis Folk and Square Dance Federation, has been credited with helping several mental patients overcome their difficulties so they could be discharged as cured. The letter nominating Millie Wirtel for the honor was sent in by Mrs. Virginia Schreiner.

ble leaders and one is that big boy from Dallas, Ray Smith.

Ray has formed among the campers (Dallas campers) attending this well known camp, a styling group. They have very appropriately named their group the "Lighted Lantern Outpost No. 1". This group meets the second Wednesday at the American Legion Hall in Oak Cliff (Dallas). They have a goal and that is to add a little style to their dancing, believing that styling means comfort, which in turn makes for better square dancing. This group will be dancing in the manner and style found popular across the nation. At these meetings the Do-Paso (not Do-Si-So) is called and a right shoulder pass is used, (not the left shoulder which pass the man in front of a lady), as in the call of "all around your left hand lady."

SWING AND WHIRL (Dallas)

The spooks and goblins were all out at the October 29th Halloween dance for the Swing and Whirl Club. Guests and members were dressed in many kinds of colorful costumes making the Grand March a thing to see. Prizes for the best concealed identity went to Jimmy and John Olster, first place, dressed as a colored mammy and a ghost. Second place went to Jean and Curt Romelt who were very cleverly and completely covered by bandages, signifying the results of a bad accident. Third place was Lee and Roy Long and they were dressed as members of a chain gang.

Only one door gave entrance to the Cavalero Lodge for the affair and this being thru a tent which offered lots of surprises and laughs. The lodge itself was well in keeping with the Halloween spirit, being decorated with corn stalks, pumpkins, hay stacks and the usual colors of orange and black. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served for refreshment time. Twenty squares danced to the fine calling of Bill Jackson with the Jackson's Jamboliers supplying the music. Guests are always invited as usual to come out and be with the Swing and Whirl Club on each 2nd and 4th Friday nights at the Cavalero Lodge.—

Veterans Treated To Square Dance

Three square of dancers representing Kingsville, Austin, San Marcos, College Station, Waco and Corpus Christi, found time to stop on the way home from Waco (where they had danced the night before and then attended the meeting of Texas Square Dancers Association that morning) gave the veterans at McCloskey General Hospital a real treat in the way of a square dance.

Mrs. Benedict who is in charge of all veteran entertainment at McCloskey reports that "The patients enjoy square dancing more than any other type of entertainment. (Editor's Note: Would it not be fitting for various dance groups to contact Veterans Hospitals and share some of their fun with the less fortunate.)"

Sample Square Dance Night

Thursday night, Dec. 16, something new for Dallas will take place at J-Bar-L Barn.

The event will be a "Sample" Square Dance night, and works like this: One couple of experienced dancers invite another couple that may be interested in learning to square dance and bring them out to the Barn, where they will be put in a square—two experienced couples and two beginner couples.

There is no charge, so let's be sure to bring some friends out there.

Callers are also asked to attend, and to bring some of their records.

This is something that is really worth while, so let's not fall down on the job. Remember the date, Thursday night, December 16th.

Singing or Patter Calls

The singing call is here to stay! Holding the number one position in popularity. Record sales are proof enough. The decline in the sales of the patter call record has been very evident in the past five years. Most record companies record instrumental hoedowns for callers, spending little time and money on the recording of the patter calls. THEY JUST DON'T SELL!

Here and now it must be pointed out that the hoedown, with the patter call is traditionally the backbone of square dancing. The patter call is used by all teachers as they run-through the fundamentals to the tune of hoedown. A caller who is versatile, knowing the mechanics of the square dance, has a wide range and is not limited as he is with a singing call. There are very few callers that can hash a singing call and do it well.

New callers are cropping up everywhere, calling the singing calls that most square dancers know by heart. These fellows are good, but all one can say is that they are good singers.

As for new dance material, the patter call leads the show. Your singing calls are here today and gone tomorrow; while the patter calls have in many cases, become old favorites. As new dances come from the mill, by the hundreds, few ever become very popular if they are not recorded.

If record companies are going to can only the singing calls, which is usually the current number one on the hit parade, how long will it be before all our callers are singing them? Something to think about.

dance leaders from North Hollywood, Calif. were honored with a surprise "Appreciation Dance" for their outstanding work in the Round Dance field. Wires, letters and telephones were all kept busy as friends and leaders poured their messages of congratulations (nationwide) to Eve and Max Dec. 5. . .
